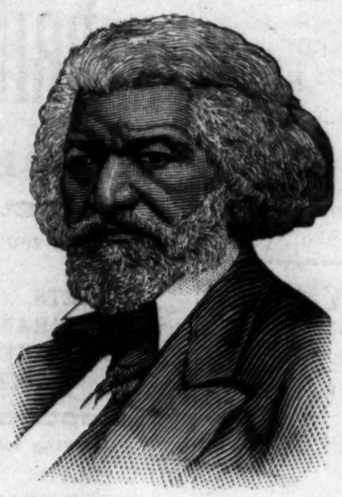
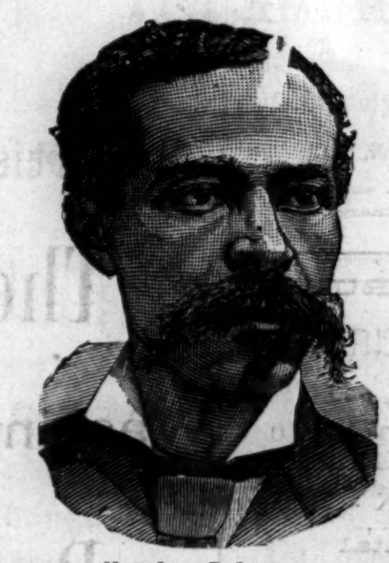
VOL. XVII. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1898. No. 16



NO MONUMENT TO DOUGLASS.

The monument that was to have been erected to the late Fred Douglass at Rochester, N. Y, proved to be a failure. For some reason the managers of the affair made a gigantic blunder. With the monument in some other State, sham ceremonies were held any way.

Mr. John C. Dancy made a speech unvailing that which did not exist. The moument will be unvailed some time in the winter.



HON. JOHN R. LYNCH,
the colored paymaster from Texas Rangers refused to receive their pay. Read next week's BEE and see the reasons why.

THEY SAY

Things are getting warm.

The Virginia campaign is at fever heat.

What will the politicians in Maryland do now?

The Congressional campaign committee will be taught a lesson or two.

Good men are coming to the front by degrees.

The masonics in the District are divided.

It is very convenient for some men to bring scandals to a close.

It is always in good taste to close your mouth when you are defeated.

Some papers never cease personal attacks until they are thrashed.

The American ought to give itself a rest.

The BEE is loaded from top to bottom.

The Bethel Literary ought to be renovated and purged of its tramps.

Is Sarah Lewis to remain at Garnet school?

Mr. Cook will exercise his authority.

The public schools will lose one of their best teachers.

It is a shame and it should not be.

There was a big Jones ratification meeting at Petersburg, last Monday night.

Speak the truth it generally pays in the long run.

Who will be the new city postmaster?

Will the President continue to ignore District republicans?

Let us have a show by all means.

Col. Harries will continue to do business at the same old stand.

We often make mistakes, and who is it that doesn't make them?

Somebody will be made to know their place.

Some new teachers are needed in our High school.

It is in need of a reorganization.

The great mistake among the school officials is in the appointment of bad timber in our High school.

The unveiling of Douglass statute was an imposing event.

Some people think that a wise look give them a dignified appearance.

We often see proper men's statutes, but they are dumb shows sometimes.

Some people have no more business of being placed in positions of power and trust than a bird has to has to be placed at a sewing machine and told to stitch.

There is too much sentiment in our public schools.

There should be some harmony in our public schools.

Do you want a live paper, if so read the BEE.

The Maryland republicans are after Mudd.

Don't be too hasty in deciding questions.

Be sure and hear both sides before you come to a conclusion.

Dressing is an art and should be taught in the sewing school.

The public schools are looking for a new sewing directress.

If you are honest you need to have no fear.

The world is on the eve of a great political revolution.

Do you think it is wise to meddle with other people's business.

Speak well of your friends it will result in good.

The weather has changed from warm to cool.

Some people make changes just as sudden at times.

If our public schools could be placed upon a high basis no doubt the people would be satisfied.

The Police Court should have a colored bailiff.

The Congressional committee needs funds.

Caution!—There have recently been issued several cheap reprints of the 1847 edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, an edition long since superannuated. These books are given various names,—"Webster's Unabridged," "The Great Webster's Dictionary," "Webster's Big Dictionary," "Webster's Encyclopedic Dictionary," etc., etc.
Many announcements concerning them are very misleading, as the body of each, from A to Z, is 44 years old, and printed from cheap plates made by photographing the old pages.

REVOLT OF THE NEGRO VOTER.

The men who as Commissioners owe their places to the solidity of the colored voters of the republican ticket preferred to reappoint the entire board of assessors rather than accord the 90,000 colored citizens a representative place in the District government. Is it strange that the colored votes of the country revolt? The District of Columbia case was watched with deep interest from one end of the country to the other. In Maryland the colored approximates 60,000 and almost to a man it was cast for the republican candidates, had it been cast against them, neither Gov. Loundes, the State officials nor the republican electors would have succeeded.

What are the facts? Notwithstanding the Governor has in his gift more than one than one thousand appointments, he has not deemed it proper to appoint a colored man to a single place. Now contrast this with the liberality of Tammany Hall and see if you cannot divise the reason why the colored voters are in revolt. In Virginia they are securing independent candidates of their own men in every republican district. In Baltimore, Mayor Malster has treated his colored allies with fairness and consideration, still on the whole, the sentiment among the colored voters is largely to the effect, that Senator Gorman and ex-Mayor Latrobe have always treated them with greater consideration than the republicans from whom they had much to expect. In Maryland under Senator Gorman's leadership, no unfriendly legislation has ever been passed, consequently colored men can join his ranks without incuring ostracism on the part of their people. The trouble seems to arise from forgetfulness on the part of subordinates of the administration, as to the means by which they are enabled to wield their power. They forget that the colored vote was an essential factor in the late contest and is likely to be so in the next. The earliest opportunity must be sought to arrest this diseffection, otherwise the colored vote will be in revolt again when a national contest is on. It is not likely that a democratic administration supported by colored allies as was the republicans, would for a moment allow its appointees to slap its faithful friends in the face as was done in the District of Columbia.

The Afro-American of Baltimore says: Tammany Hall has put more colored men in places in the last six months than the republicans in the previous twenty-five years. It seems that the republican officials expect the votes of the colored men on the issues of the civil war, forgetful of the fact that nearly forty years have elapsed since Emancipation, there would seem to be as much reason to expect the white man to vote now as did his ancestors a hundred years ago. The conditions are different and the negro will vote as interest may dictate now.

The Post has won a reputation that no other paper in this country will envy.

THE EMPRESS OF AUSTRIA.

The cruel murder of the Empress of Austria emphasizes the social condition on the European Continent and is a warning to the American people to religiously guard against the propogation of sentiments revolutionary of stable government. The spirit of anarchy is one of growth, raped and disastrous. It was first manifested in feeble manifestations of resistance to constitute authority and disregard for the lives and liberties of others. It has grown until kings and potentates are apprehensive for their own lives. The lesson is an easy one. Let disregard for law and order and the natural and social rights of man be encouraged in this country and you will have set to work forces which must eventuate in the destruction of the very life of this Republic. Let lynch-law and high-handed discrimination and injustice be long practiced in a community and the effect is so contagious a character as to poison the fountains of justice and become baleful in its general results. Let justice be done to all and the people doom which awaits Europe, may be averted. In the wisdom of social restrain and the development of a just regard of the rights of our neighbors may lodge the hope of the negro as well as of the white race.

NOT YET OVER.

The opinion expressed by Gen. Wheeler to the effect that the war with Spain is not yet over, as showed by many who from the first believed that before Spain would relinquish her hold upon Cuba and Porto Rico and especially the Phillipines they would go to the very farthere-est extent of diplomacy as well as war. The fact is quite apparent that, before the Peace Commission will be able to accomplish anything in the way of restoring order, more blood must be shed and more Spanish villiany perpetrated. Now that Admiral Dewey has made a request for more ships and more military forces this government ought not only furnish that distinguished officer what he needs to thoroughly subjugate the Phillipines, but it ought to prosecute a vigorous policy with respect to Porto Rico.

To allow the results of the brilliant success of our soldier to be offset neutralized or even destroyed by future emergencies would be to make the greatest blunder of the century. We have routed the Spaniards and we should not dictate in no uncertain terms what we must have and that without further cavil.

OUR HIGH SCHOOL.

The BEE has frequently called the attention of our colored High School to the colored trustees and it seems that its condition is from wrose to worse. The attention of Mr. Ross is now called to its bad condition. The next move is to put an incompetent woman at the head of the business High School. Prof. H. M. Brown, teacher of physics, intends to resign because he will no longer serve under incompetent teachers or persons who are continually jepodizing the interest of his school. The colored High School is greatly in need of some good material. Are the people to suffer much longer?

On the night of the 11th inst., the white troops at Chichamaugo Park, set fire to Camp Thomas Theartre, a building authorized by Gen. Brooke where theatrical entertainments were given to the volunteer army. Thousands of feet of lumber were burned. The Washington Post please copy.

The young man on the Post, is scouring the country over and publishing every scrap of news in his mad endeavor to establish the truth of his statement relative to the incompetency of colored officers in the army. Meanwhile it will be the duty of the BEE to publish the short comings of the white volunteer soldiery which the young man on the Post carefully omits.

ALEXANDER CRUMMELL DEAD.

THE MOST NOTED NEGRO—NO MORE. AUTHOR OF MANY BOOKS—AN ORATOR AND SCHOLAR.

Rev. Alexander Crummell, D. D., died Saturday at Point Pleasant, N. J. The news of death while not unexpected was heard with sincere regret by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Dr. Crummell was one of the best known colored men in this country, where he had lived for the past quarter of a century. He was a man of scholarly attainments and exercised a wide influence.

Dr. Crummell was born in the year 1819 in New York city. His father, who was a native of the western part of Africa was stolen when a boy and brought to this country. The attempts of young Crummell to avail himself of the educational facilities of the schools in his vicinity provoked the hostility that was felt toward his race at that time.

In 1835 in company with Henry Highland Garnet, late United State minister to Liberia, and Thomas Sidney, he entered a school at Canaan, N. H., but the prejudice against the higher education of negroes was so intense that they were not permitted to remain. Afterward they entered the Oneida Institue and remained three years.

In 1839 he made an application for admission to the General Theological Seminary in New York, as he desired to enter the ministry of the Protestant Episcopal church. This application was denied, but subsequently a license to preach was obtained from that denomination, though with difficulty. He went to England in 1848 and entered Queen's College, Cambridge, and graduated in 1853. He entered the missionary service of his church and for twenty years he was in Liberia, during which time he acted as principal of the Alexandria High School and president of the Liberia College. He returned to this country in 1873 and established in this city St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal church, corner 15th and Madison streets northwest, and continued as rector of this parish until 1895, when he retired.

Dr. Crummell was president of the Colored Ministers' Union and president of the American Negro Academy. His published works are "The Future of Africa," issued in 1862; "The Greatness of Christ" and "Africa and America." He leaves a widow and two children.

In several of the colored churches of the city Monday appropriate reference was made to the death of Dr. Crummell. This was especially the case at St. Luke's church, of which parish he had been rector for so many years. A meeting of the vistry was held and the rector, O. M. Waller, was appointed to represent the parish at the funeral ceremonies, which took place Tuesday in St. Philip's, New York city, in which parish the deceased was born.

The Ministers' Union of this city, at a meeting held Monday at the Metropolitan A. M. E. Church, adopted a resolution of respect to Dr. Crummell and appointed the following delegation of brethren to attend the funeral: Rev. Dr. F. J. Grimke, Rev. Dr. J. A. Johnson and Rev. O. M. Waller.

The resident members of the American Negro Academy held a special meeting Monday in the study of the Metropolitan A. M. E. Church and took appropriate action.

In Ivy City Monday night, after a sermon by Rev. E. P. Moon, pastor of Lane's Chapel C. M. E. Church, Mr Perry Carson spoke of the death of Dr. Crummell, and suggested that a resolution be adopted in his memory, which was done. The resolution was to the effect that "the Rev. Alexander Crummell, D. D., a great scholar and divine of the Protestant Episcopal Church and ex-rector of St. Luke Episcopal Church, Washington, D. C. whom we so much loved and admired having passed away, we, the members and congregation of Trinity Baptist Church, Ivy City, deeply regret the death of this great man, and shall ever esteem his memory."

DR. CRUMMELL AT REST.

The remains of Dr. Crummell were removed from Point Pleasant Sunday and lay in state all day Monday and Tuesday morning to the hour of services.

The day dawned bright and clear heaven and so did the Doctor, as he lay in his casket of black cloth with its velvet trimmings and silver plate bearing the simple inscription:

Born March 3rd 1819,
Alexander Crummell,
Died September 10th 1898.

A good audience was present and the services were very impressive to their simplicity, especially to those of us who knew the Doctor's notes. The music which included Gonnod's choir, "There is a green Hill far away," was well rendered. Mr. Bishop, the pastor, was assisted by Mr. Mitchel M. Tunnell of this city and Mr. Taylor Miller of Brooklyn.

At the grave, the resolutions of the Academy and the Ministers' Union were read. Members of St. Philips Church vestry were the pall-bearers.

Mr. Charles Crummell and Mr. Sidney Crummell's wife attended the funeral and followed Mr. Dr. Crummell and Mr. W. B. Hayson, Mr. G. T. Downing of Newport, R. I. and one other were present, also were Hon John H. Smyth Revs. Matthews, Anderson and J. B. Reeves of Philadelphia, Revs. J. A. Johnson and F. J. Grimke of this city, Rez. O. M Waller represented St. Luke's P. E. Church.

Mr. Henry A. Pellem sent a large wreath of Ivy leaves as did the vestry of St. Phillips. Mr. W. B. Hayson sent a large bouquet of roses.

Mrs. Dr. Crummell accompanied by Mr. W. B. Hayson returned to the city yesterday.

Dr. D. W. Scott has been nominated for Congress in the 12th District, city of St. Louis, Mo., by the Independent Republicans. The doctor is the first colored man ever nominated for Congress in that city.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM.

The new office building on the site of the old Columbia Law School, opposite Judiciary Square, supplants an old landmark, memorable in the history of the city. The old building, one time a church, next a law school and last of all a rookery of law offices, is also closely associated with many interesting movements in the past among our people

Islay Walden, an odd genius, poet and preacher, during his collegiate days at Howard University, some twenty odd years ago, conducted a very well attended non-denominational Sunday school here. The teachers young men and women, were drawn from the departments and the University. The singing of the school was a most attractive feature. Mr. Henry B. Fry, now superintendent of the intellectual department of the institution for the deaf and blind at Austin, Tex., was the chorister and his sister, Miss Helena, whose work at Holly Springs, Miss., is commemorated by a costly monument in front of that institution, was the organist. Bruce Grit's bass voice could always be heard distinctly above all others, those days when the skill of his right hand had not been so universally acknowledged. Walden after graduation, entered the service of the American Missionary Association, and a humble grave in a remote corner of North Carolina marks the scene of labors that duplicated his academic missionary services.

The basement of the law school was quite an intellectual arena. Here if I mistake not, the "Institute" formed in the law office of Charles N. Thomas, held its few gatherings. Of those now viving I can only recall Henry W. Chandler, now of Ocala, Fla., then a genuine iron-cast Adonis on broze and black.

The Olive leaf Literary had a somewhat longer career. Mrs. Mary A. Shadd Carey not unfrequently was prominent as a disputant. Rev. J. D. Bagwell's platitudes were quite amusing. Daniel W. Lewis, then an active police court lawyer, was a source of infinite amusement. George Wellington Bryant, who visited our city about this time, heartily enjoyed one of Lewis' performances, the graphic description of which in a local paper brought down Lewis' indignation upon the reporter whom be attempted to impeach and expel.

Bishop R. H. Cain figured somewhat conspicuously at the Columbia. Israel C. M. E. church had broken from its A. M. E. moorings, but a few, loyal to the old flag, were organized as the Cosmopolitan A. M. E. church, the success of which would have made it and not Metropolitan, the national church of that organization but Bishop Cain's magnetism and political prestige could not galvanize the movement into a healthy life.

Speaking of literaries, I am reliably informed that nearly sixty years ago a very influential organization of the foremost young men of that period did excellent service. It must not be concluded that the topics before them were narrowed to the progress of the rising generation and the outlook for the free colored Americans, for they had interpreters of the art dramatic among their number, and one very clever man, an employe of a physician, had picked up enough medical knowedge to deliver a fair lecture on medical topics.

Of the men foremost in this movement, at a time when Frederick Douglass was unknown and of the nature of the social gatherings that were held in defiance of the strict regulations against the assembling of people of color at night except in the presnce of a white person, something later will be told by A. Wrecker.

NEGROES MUST LEAVE.

From the Missouri Messenger.

"The colored people are flocking to Dallas from all over northern Texas. The whitecaps in Rockwell, Denton, Grayson, Kaufman, Fannie and other counties are to blame. The negro district and suburbs of Dallas are crowded with strangers from the sections named. Chief of Police Cornwell, finds the problem of what to do with the refugees a serious one. He said to day:

"We have 1,500 or 2,000 more negroes in Dallas now than our normal population of that race. Whitecaps have inaugurated a reign of terror.',

Poor Mr. negro always unprepared in time of peace he should do a little thinking too and be ready at all times to meet such inhuman acts with the right kind of resentfulness—a few must make up their minds to die for the others. Negroes all over the south should awake to the full sense of their duty and prepare for such emergencies; not leaving out Missouri for she is as far south as any of them in her love for the negro.

SIGHT OF HER COLORED LOVER.

CLOSED THE SCOTCH LASSIES HEART TO ALL ARGUMENT—SHE WILL NOW MARRY HIM.

NEW YORK, September 11.—Maggie Wood, the bonnie Scotch lassie who came here from Edinburg, Scotland, to marry Martin Hamilton, a Philadelphia colored man, is still a prisoner at Barge office.

Rev. Francis Carruthers, a Scotchman, of Taunton, Mass, arrived in the city yesterday to try and convince the young woman that she was doing an unwise thing. Shortly after his arrival Darnald O'Reilly, of Harrisburg, Pa., called on the girl. Mr. O'Reilly is well known among the Scotch people, and, as he put it, for the sake of countrymen he had come on to try and persaude the woman to change her mind.

For a long time Mr. Carruthers and Miss Wood.

DISCUSSED THE CASE.

Notwithstanding she is a strict Presbyterian, she refused to allow anyargument of the minister to convince her that she was doing wrong.

The clergyman, disheartened at his failure to change the decision of the girl, reported to Assistant Commissioner McSweeny, who decided to hold Maggie a few days more

T. V. Powderly, Commissioner General of immigration, entered the building at that time.

"Why hot send her up into the negro colony to see the life that the poor lead there?" he suggested.

Up town the party started, going through the various tough localities where whites and blacks intermingle

The girl recoiled from the scenes she witnessed. She said that to marry Martin would be unwise. The party returned to the barge office, where before the Bord of Special Inquiry Maggie said that she no longer desired to have any thing to do with Hamilton.

CHANGED HER MIND.

Just after the party had reached barge office Hamilton and T. Thomas Fortune, editor of the New York Age, appeared.

Hamilton was admitted to see the girl. As soon as the face of the black man appeared the girl changed. She cried and she smiled, and when Hamilton stepped toward her she stood up and stretched out her arms.

The two embraced. After being seperated the woman was taken into Commissioner McSweeny's private office, where she said:

"Oh, I canna think of anything or any one but Martin. I love him, indeed I do, and I will marry him if I hae to go to Scotland to do it".

Hamilton to-day said he would never give her up.

Meantime Maggie is in the detention room at the Barge Office, where she passes her time in crying softly to herself. Since she has been detained she has not eaten a morsel of food.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the county than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it local disease, and pres ribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and, therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address.

Those who witnessed the affair say that it was a cold blooded murder. This is the second murder committed by white volunteers from the South quartered at San Francisco.

A SUCCESSFUL PHYSICIAN.

Dr. Collins B. Cruesoe, of West Washington, is no doubt one the most successful physicians in this city and beyond all doubt the most prominent in West Washington. He is from one of the oldest and best-known families in Washington. The history of his ancestors reads like a classic novel. Dr. Cruesoe is a graduate of the Howard University medical school, having graduated with high honors. Aside from his medical knowledge, he is a surgeon of ability.

ROBBED OF HIS OWN CONVICTION.

Recently the attention of the BEE has been called to the fresh outrages perpetrated at the southern ballot box. It is admissable that a large majority of the colored voters in the South are ignorant and unable to read. This reasonable estimation give rise to an idea, that the stuff-ballot system originates and damns the morals of the innocent. Many a colored voter has his name forged on a ticket that he knows nothing about and seems satisfied because he is ignorant respeting his welfare and interest. In some of the southern districts the colored population excels by a large ratio and yet when representatives come from those districts they are white men. It does not seem plausible that this is the right thing. While illiteracy may exist to a high degree in the South among the major portion of the colored people, it is hardly feasible that they would elect men to Congress who in many instances challenge their right of citizenship. This part of the question needs no discussion and the more conservative conclusion is, that something is wrong and somebody must right it. This danger, the republic should fear more than any other, for the political strata of a country is its back bone.

THE IMMUNES.

So much doubt and misinformation is current in regard to the above named volunteers, and so many are claiming the credit for their organization, that it seems perfectly proper and to vindicate the truth of history that the true facts should be stated. The credit for the "Immune" amendment to the supplimental army bill is due to a citizen of the District of Columbia and not to Col. James Lewis as has been often stated.

The original bill known as Senate bill 4468 was introduced by Senator Proctor and provided for enlisting three regiments of engineers to be additional to the increase of volunteers provided for by the Act of April 22nd 1898. The Hon. George H. White had vainly endeavored to get an amendment through providing for an increase of the colored representation in the Army, but was unsuccessful, many objecting to the use of any term specially designating certain regiments to be composed of colored men, and the matter then was dropped. The same proposition introduced by Senator Proctor was presented in the House of Representatives by Gen. Wheeler, but did not meet with favor until the War Department officials gave it their endorsement. It was then that our citizen seeing that the whites would secure three additional regiments and the colored people none, drafted the "immune" amendment and asked the writer hereof to find Col. Lewis and get him to carry it over to Gen. Hawley, chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs, this was done and the world knows the rest. The fact that the proposition originated with a colored man connected with the capital, causes the deep bitterness which has grown out of its administration by the War Department. What was intended for the colored people wholly to enable them to have honorable representation in the volunteer army, organized for the defense of the country was used as an instrument of insult and humiliation. Not only did the War Department deprive the colored men of six of the ten regiments provided, but positively refused to commission any colored man as a line officer higher than first lieutenant. Upon no other race was any such humiliating conditions imposed and that done by the party to whom they had given in the national contest 95 per cent of their votes. At no time and in no other one thing has the colored race been so cruelly treated as in this "immune" matter. All over the country the colored men are running indpeendent tickets, in that manner exhibiting their deep resentment over their unfair treatment. In the District of Columbia their suffering from official discrimination has all the bitterness of death, with no relief in sight. It remains to be seen what action the colored people of the country will take. If the War Department is to be investigated as to its management of the war, it certainly would be proper for the colored people of the country to present their grievance.

FOR SALE—Near New York avenue and North Capital street, new, buff brick residence, 6 rooms, cellar and bath, newly papered and decorated; has all modern improvements and conveniences: mirror mantels, speaking tubes, electric bells, etc.

This property is nicely located in an improving section of the city. The new electric cars will pass within a half block. This property, $3,000, on monthly payments about the same as rent.

FOR SALE—In the northwest, very desirably located, a dwelling and store together, brick, large store room, dining room and kitchen on the first floor, 4 bedrooms and bath on second floor, all modern improvements. Shelving and counters complete. Price, $3,500, on very easy terms. This is an investment worthy of immediate attention.

Many other well located properties in different sections of the city for sale on easy terms. Stop paying rent and own your own home.

MUST PAY ALIMONY.

The question of alimony and counsel fees in the case of Nina Eliza Pinchback Toomer against Nathan Toomer for divorce was argued Monday by counsel before Justice Cox in Equity Court No. 1. The complainant in the suit is the daughter of former Gov. Pinchback, of Louisiana, a well-known politician, now a resident of this city. Toomer, who appeared in court, was shown by his attorneys to be a responsible and well-to-do business man of Atlanta, Ga., a man of considerable wealth, and manager of a large estate, whereupon the court remarked that if such was the case he was fully able to pay his wife $60 a month alimony and $75 counsel fees and entered a decision accordingly.

There is a rumor current that Gen. Harries will be the next postmaster of this city. Whatever confirmation there is to this report, the BEE feels confident that the selection mentioned will in no way harm the interest of the office. With great credit Mr. Harries has filled several offices of trust and honor and his past record will safely vouch for his efficiency both in a public and a private capacity.

A very pretty tea party was given Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fearing, 15th street extended. The spacious parlor was brilliantly illuminated and as the guest gayly chatted the moments were interlaced by choice instrumental and vocal solos. Messrs. Maxwell and Watson, of the Ninth and Tenth Calvaries were on hand and related their eventful experiences in that charge at San Juan.

ROYAL BLUE TRAINS.

In September last, railway officials from London were sent to America, to get ideas on the railway passenger service of the leading lines in this country, and in their official report, which was printed in the London Times in January, it was stated that the "Royal Blue Line" series of magnificent passenger trains, running between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, lead the world for quick and exquisite train service.

The "Royal Blue Line" service consists of nine elegant passenger trains a day in each direction between the cities named above. They are the finest and fastest trains in the world. Their equipment was built especially for the service by the Pullman Company, and includes every modern convenience known for the comfort of passengers. The trains are vestibuled from end to end, and hauled by the strongest and fastest locomotives in the United States.

The exquisite day coaches of these trains are worthy of special note. They are beautifully upholstered, each containing a washroom and smoking compartment.

The parlor cars are the most palatial ever built, being fully seventy-three feet long. In addition to this service, three new parlor cars were added in April, and are the first of this kind ever run; they are richly upholstered and ornamented throughout in most beautiful designs. A ladies' retiring-room is provided in one end of the car. This room, which is six feet square, is furnished with a beautiful dresser with large mirror and a number of drawers. On each side of it are upholstered corner seats. In another corner is a bookcase and stationary washstand. The room was designed for especial comfort of ladies, who have always claimed men had the best of it when travelling. The usual smoking apartment, however, is at the opposite end of the car.

The dining cars are operated by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and especial attention is given to the menu. Every delicacy is served in season, and the service is unsurpassed.

In addition to the already perfect service of "Royal Blue Trains" mentioned above, there will be put into service May 15 a "Royal Limited" train, which will leave New York at 1.00 P. M., making the run to Washington in FIVE hours. Returning, the "Royal Limited will leave Washington at 3.00 P. M., arriving New York at 8.10 P M. The "Royal Blue Line" will then boast of three trains which make this extraordinary fast time between Washington and New York, which has never been attained by any other line. The "Royal Blue Trains" between Baltimore and Washington make the run in FORTY-FIVE MINUTES—the fastest regular service ever attained between the two cities.

The terminal at New York City is the most convenient for all points in Greater New York. Passengers can land at South Ferry (Whitehall Terminal), where, under the same roof, connection is made with the elevated lines of the second, Third, Sixth and Ninth Avenues, and the Broadway, Lexington and Columbus Avenue Cables. All the Brooklyn Ferries also start from this point, and by taking

SCHOOL OF PRINTING.

We would respectfullly call our readers' attention to a new field of lador that THE BEE has inaugurated at its office, 1109 I street, N. W.—a School of Printing for colored youths. It is the intention of the management that any who may avail themselves of the advantages of this schoo., shall receive a complete practical training in the art of printing in all its branches. The instructions will be under the personal supervision of Mr. Chase, member of the Typographical Union of this city, and who is without doubt among the best all-round printers in the country. Our facilities will be augmented by an entire new printing outfit, including all the latest styles of type, job presses and cylinder press, which will give pupils a chance to be up-to-date in the trade. In this connection we would ask our patrons to send in their orders for job work of any kind, as we will now be able to fill all orders from the smallest visiting card to the largest poster, and promise that our prices and work will compare favorably with those of any firm in the city.

Any young man desiring a trade will do well to write us for terms, etc., or call at this office and look over the establishment. The schoo will open on July 26th, and those desiring tuition will do well to inquire at once, as only a limited number can of necessity be accommodated. For information, terms, etc., Address, W. Calvin Chase, Manager Bee School of Printing.

Thanking you for past favors, and feeling assured of your support in this new endeavor, we are yours, THE BEE.

ON THE SIDE

ic.—A loud and boisterous person has never known to make a good teacher. Teachers are supposed model for their pupils. refined lady will act the same, matters not where she may go.

Lena:—No, I don't approve of any one being an old maid on account of a good salary." If you are economical, I see no reason why you cannot live comfortably on $60 per month. From what you say, I think he will make a good provider.

Estelle:—Think not of position. 'Tis better to wed for love than riches.

W. C.—Do your duty as near as possible. Angels cannot do more.

Girls:—Promises are easily broken. The man who continues to make promises, simply to please, and does not keep any, is a knave. Women often cause men to be knaves by their own way of showing their devotion to them. After all, man is but an animal. He likes to seek and not to be sought after. Girls beware.

Education softens the brain of a fool and turns many a silly person crazy.

Reader:—Don't borrow this paper from your neighbor and then wonder why we have'nt a colored daily.

Many of my dear girls are returning from their vacation. Some of you have been a little reckless, I know, simply because you have been out of my sight, or the view of your would-be friends. The fact should be well cherished that good manners are the same the world over and while you may think that we could not see you, there were others."

Only the guilty take offense at things said that are not meant to be personal. The person who takes everything to himself must naturally be guilty.

Subscriber:—Patronize those who advertise in this paper. They are helping us in getting a daily.

Graduate:—The new building will call for several teachers, also there will be several higher grades added to some of the northeast schools, which will make several vacancies. I hardly think that sewing will be taught in the kindergarten by a special teacher. No changes are expected.

Ruffe:—An obedient daughter will do nothing without her mother's permission and sanction. If a young man should ask the previlege of calling, he should by all means consult your mother.

You cannot learn deportment by rote; it comes out of the man himself. Be among well bred people and keep your eyes open, by doing so you will learn more than you would by reading books on "good manners".

Law and medicine as professions, are quite the fad among the ladies as well as men. I am decidedly opposed to it for the former. All clients go to law to settle their differences and women are naturally too nervous to make good physicians.

Fred:—The wisest age for marriage depends upon the young man. The very earliest should be twenty-five years, though thirty is better.

Every girl in the business world should be sedate, refine and lady-like but she should not consider her own reputation, but the reputation of all other working-women, and not allow herself to be anything but thoughtful of appearance and results.

Visitor:—You laugh entirely too much at nothing. It is silly to laugh except something amuses you. The person who continues to grin is either a fool or a knave. Read more and you will then have something to talk about.

Sadie:—When a lady is introduced to a person at her own home, it is quite the proper thing for her to extend her hand. It is a breach of etiquette to shake hands in the street.

Lillie:—There is no harm for young ladies to go to the theatre alone, especially when escorts are so triffling as never be beholding to any man. Go alone when you cannot better your condition.

B. M.—Never condemn other people for that of which you are guilty. I have seen too much of that Basie:—put on colors that are becoming to you. Don't wear a dress to become others that will not look well on you.

Willie: Always respect honesty. It will pay in the long run. Too much familiarity will often lead to disrespect.

Clerk:—The word "gent" is not, pronounced as proper in any correspondence. A letter to a business man should begin with "Messrs.—— Gentlemen."

To retain your position, you should be honest in thoughts as well as in deeds. Do not waste the time that belongs to your employer.

Grant:—Men are peculiar being. They often mistake pleasant manners for familiarity.

After once securing a love for good society, no greater punishment will be found to be thrown into bad company.

Delia:—When selfishness becomes established in any family love hops down, and you might as well prepare yourself for the disagreeable little things which break up many a comfortable home.

No honest person will indulge in sham generosities.
